

2013 Student Expectations

Being involved in the musical arts is a fun and rewarding experience that will teach your children numerous valuable lessons. In order to get the most out of your child's musical experience, here are some student expectations:

1. Attend all rehearsals and performances.
2. Give advanced notice for any absences.
3. Try and work a compromise for any conflicts.
4. Be on time!
5. Practice daily at home for approx. 30 minutes.
6. Be responsible for all music and equipment.
7. HAVE FUN!!!!!!!

I am looking forward to a great year of music!!!!!! See you all soon!

JM